A collaboration scheme between Hokkaido University, Faculty of Engineering and ETH Zurich, Material Research Center was started by being signed on an agreement of Academic Exchange Program for Research in 2008. The program is for promoting research collaboration and composed of series of symposia. Mutual visits of Professors and Research Associates have been constantly carried out and many joint papers have been published.

Mini symposia where the activity is summarized took place in each year as listed below. A proceeding of each symposium was prepared to record the activity of AECOR.

AECOR	Date	Place	Papers
1	12.-13. January 2009	ETH Zurich	10
2	8.-9. February 2010	Hokkaido Univ. Sapporo	17
