

An introduction to study opportunities in Japan

Experience Japan

For young people from abroad wanting to experience life style and studies in a foreign country.

In fact, Japan is a great place to study. And with the recent blossoming of degree-level programs taught in English, you no longer need to speak Japanese in order to study here.

Information Event

Tuesday, 19 November 2013, 17:00 – 20:00

Japan Information and Cultural Center, Embassy of Japan in Switzerland, Bern

Host: Sawako Sulzberger-Miki, Japanese Lecturer, University of Bern Japanese Teacher, Gymnasium Burgdorf

Supported by the Embassy of Japan in Switzerland, Bern

Sponsored by Toyota AG

This event will allow you to find out about the various exciting opportunities to study in Japan. The growing number of English-language degree programs at Japan's universities offers you the chance to advance your knowledge in this fascinating country, whatever your level of study. Several leading Japanese universities will be attending the event to provide information on these programs. There will also be a chance to find out about the variety of scholarships and research funding available to enable you to take advantage of these learning opportunities. The event will introduce other programs that allow you to experience Japan, such as the Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Program. The seminar line-up offers participants the chance to hear directly from people with experience of studying in Japan, as well as from Japanese citizens staying in Switzerland temporarily for an exchange.
